G.E.T. Enterprises Welcomes Bugambilia International to its Team and Portfolio

Houston, TX, March 20, 2015 - G.E.T. Enterprises, LLC, supplier of creative tabletop solutions for the commercial foodservice industry, announced its completed merger with Irvine-based Bugambilia International Inc., Friday.

For over 30 years, Houston-based G.E.T. Enterprises has been a leading supplier of high-quality dinnerware, drinkware and displayware crafted from melamine and alternative materials. G.E.T.'s broad portfolio features the look and feel of traditional materials while delivering unique designs with durability benefits. The company's dedication to quality, reliability and customer service has made it a favorite among national restaurant chains, universities, caterers, hotels, contract feeders, and other foodservice establishments.

By joining with Bugambilia, G.E.T. adds Bugambilia's signature resin coated cast aluminum displayware, biodegradable bamboo dinnerware, bamboo riser systems, and metal stands to its already extensive product offering. Said Bugambilia founder Paul Segal, "Joining an established and rapidly-growing company like G.E.T. is the next exciting step for the Bugambilia brand. With G.E.T.'s reach, Bugambilia's unique products will soon be a part of even more foodservice establishments worldwide."

Heidi Modaro, G.E.T.'s Chief Executive Officer, agreed, adding "G.E.T. is growing rapidly – and that's because we blend alternative and innovative products with outstanding customer service. G.E.T.'s goal is to enhance our foodservice owners' and chefs' menu items while helping them to be more profitable. By combining G.E.T.'s design expertise and Bugambilia's unique tabletop solutions, G.E.T. looks forward to creating future product developments and continued growth and success for the industry."
